Participating in a Brainsy powered network is easy. Here are some common questions on the service.

What is a Brainsy Personal Media Account?

A Brainsy powered Personal Media Account is a cross between a personal speakers bureau and your own personal online marketing platform. At the core of the account is your personalized profile, promotional tools, and the InCall® transactional platform which can get you paid for talking with others over the phone.

Who determines the rate posted on my profile?

You do! You set the rate at which you'll accept InCall requests and can change it at any time prior to a call request.

Am I obligated to have calls with just anyone?

You have full control over your Personal Media Profile and may decline any call requests in which you don't wish to participate. And when you're on vacation or can't be distracted due to other work, you can set your Profile on "unavailable" to opt out of the InCall feature -- yet retain all the discovery and SEO benefits of your listing.

How much can I earn from my Account?

You post your own rate for participating in an InCall. Payouts will vary by network but typically, one may earn up to 70% of their posted rate. The total amount you can earn depends on your rate, commission, and the number of calls in which you participate.

After an InCall call with someone, am I required to always use the network's platform to have future calls with that person?

Not at all -- although you may decide to do so for billing convenience. After an initial call, you are free to take future discussions off the platform.

Sounds great. How do I sign up?

Contact your network sponsor to pay your listing fee (if applicable). After that, you will receive an authorization code to set up your account and online profile.

Participating in a Brainsy powered network may get you recognized as a thought leader in the field and you can get paid for InCall® phone calls.
